Well, here is an opportunity to get more comfortable with making pies. Join Corpus mom and home baker Sophia Bucheli for an afternoon in her kitchen. There you will get a hands on experience in pie making. Her hope is to show you that making a pie is not that difficult. This experience is meant to feel like hanging out with friends while baking. You name the cuisine and we have done it -- Argentinian, Californian, French, Italian, Latin American -- and this year, we are going to leave you guessing. Will we put a twist on one of our all-time favorites, come up with something completely new or give your taste buds an "around the world" sample from each? You will need to be there to find out. Needless to say, our reputation for being the best reservation of the year precedes itself (ask the couples who booked it for their birthday and anniversary outings!) and you won't want to miss out on the last chance to be a part of one of the school's most talked about events.
